NEW YORK STATE NOMINATES FOR NOVEMBER POLLS

Glynn Heads Democrats for Governor, Whitman Republican, Progressive in Doubt

Early returns from the primary election in New York state on September 28 were received in today's mail. Governor Glynn has apparently been nominated by a large vote on the Democratic ticket; Charles S. Whitman, the fighting district attorney, was an easy winner of the Republican nomination, while the Progressive nomination was in doubt between William Sulzer, the deposed governor, and Frederick M. Davenport, with the chances in favor of Davenport.

An Associated Press despatch in the morning papers of September 29 says: NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Organization candidates led strongly in the early returns in this city in the primaries for the Republican and Democratic nominations for Governor and United States Senator. Governor Martin H. Glynn led John A. Hennessy by approximately 4 to 1 in the Democratic gubernatorial primaries.

In the Democratic contest for United States Senator, James W. Gerard, United States Ambassador to Germany, was running ahead of Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, by about 4 1/2 to 1.

In the Republican primaries for Governor, Charles S. Whitman, District Attorney of New York county, was leading Job Hedges, Republican candidate for Governor two years ago, by nearly 5 to 1. Harvey D. Hinman, former State Senator, ran considerably behind Hedges.

Representative William M. Calder of Brooklyn led James W. Wadsworth, Jr., former speaker of the State Assembly, by nearly 5 to 1 for the Republican nomination for United States Senator, and David Jayne Hill had received only about one-eighth as many votes as Wadsworth.

The contest for Governor in the Progressive primaries was running very close. The earliest returns showed William Sulzer, present assemblyman, and last year impeached as the Democratic Governor, ahead of Frederick M. Davenport, former Republican State Senator and Progressive candidate for Lieutenant-Governor in 1912, by about 40 votes. Subsequent returns of the early evening, however, showed a slight majority in favor of Davenport.

The new law makes it impossible to vote for a complete ticket with one mark and it is not probable that final results of all contests will be known for a day or two.

LAKE VIEN NO. 2 OIL COMPANY PRODUCES FINANCIAL STATEMENT

Enclosed in a circular dated September 15 the stockholders of Lake View No. 2 Oil Company have received in today's mail a financial statement brought up to July 31. On that date the company had $67,825 cash on hand, according to the statement, of which $53,936.29 represented July oil deliveries. The statement of assets and liabilities is of as old a date as June 30 last, and it shows a surplus of $185,627.98 then. The oil delivery report is no later, but a footnote states that the net deliveries for July were 134,260.49 barrels—equal to $53,936.29.

In the circular it is stated that well No. 1 continues to produce approximately 25,000 barrels per day. Mention is made of the influence of the European war on the California oil situation, placing the oil export business at a standstill, but the hope is expressed that the new federal law will result in the bringing of foreign tankers under the American flag. This, it is said, would relieve the situation, and the circular adds mean that the company would be making heavier deliveries than it had been doing the previous 30 days.

GOVERNOR REPORTED TO HAVE SCORED PLANTERS

According to a wireless received late Saturday Governor Pinkham's message to the convention, as delivered by Wade Warren Thayer, secretary of the territory, attacked at considerable length the sugar planters of Hawaii. It pointed out that the actions of sugar interests had been offensive to the administration to such an extent that the probability of legislation, beneficial to Hawaii, was but slender at the present time. "The representatives of the sugar planters in Washington," said the message, "are conducting a yellow journal campaign," advocating "proper" representation in Washington with the idea in view of securing legislation of a beneficial nature.
